Boy's 'horror injury' after hit and run

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A 12-YEAR-OLD boy has said he thought he was 'going to die' after he was knocked over in a hit and run.

Michael Jones was rushed to Milton Keynes University Hospital after being hit by an off-road scrambler motorbike in a field off Lammas, Beanhill, at about 3.45pm last Tuesday.

He had surgery on his left leg to treat the injury and was released from hospital the next day on crutches.

His mother Laura Muir, 30, of The Hide, Netherfield, was shopping with her nine-year-old daughter Amy when she heard the news.

Speaking to MK NEWS, she said: "I had a text saying Michael had been hit and to get there straight away.

"Obviously, I dropped everything and went. As a parent, I immediately thought the worst.

"All the residents in Beanhill were amazing – they stayed until the ambulance came and kept looking out for the bike.

"We could see all of the tissue hanging out and we could see right down to the bone.

"It was something you see out of a horror story."

Michael had been playing with friends at the time he was hit.

He said: "It was going round and round the whole of the field. He was making circles and then hit me on the side.

"I started walking on it and I felt wetness on my leg. I pulled up my trouser and saw the blood.

"When I saw the massive cut on my leg, I thought I was going to die."

Michael has now started walking without support after spending five days on crutches and the keen footballer has been told he may be able to start playing again in two to four weeks.

With her son making a good recovery, Laura is now desperate for the person responsible to be caught and for justice to be served.

She added: "I do not understand why the driver of the bike was on a field where kids were playing.

"If the bike had hit a younger child, we would be looking at a different charge.

"Michael does not want to wear shorts now because of the scar and he does not want to go out and play again any time soon.

"We want to put this behind us and for justice to be served."

A man was arrested in connection with the hit and run and has been released on police bail pending further enquiries.

The investigation remains ongoing and anyone with information is urged to call 101.

Horse cut from vehicle after it gets wedged under low bridge

FIREFIGHTERS rescued a horse on Sunday after its box became stuck under a bridge in Newport Pagnell.

Buckinghamshire Fire and Rescue Service was called to Ousebank Street at 7.55am. The horse, called Clara, was sedated by Towcester Equine Vets while firefighters used hydraulic rescue equipment to cut her free. She escaped uninjured.

It is believed the driver was directed to Ousebank Street by her sat nav.

The height warning sign originally on the bridge is no longer there and Milton Keynes Council has confirmed it will be replaced.

Medical Detection Dogs trial gets the green light

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A NEW trial has been given the go-ahead, which Medical Detection Dogs and Milton Keynes University Hospital hopes will put the city on the map for cancer detection.

Nine of the charity's cancer sniffing dogs will take part in the first clinical trial of its kind after the NHS approved the three-year scheme. It will see urine samples taken from more than 3,000 patients.

The experiment will detect if the dogs are more accurate at sniffing out prostate cancer than the testing that is currently done in hospital.

Tests so far by Medical Detection Dogs, based in Great Horwood, have suggested that they are 93 per cent effective in detecting the odour of prostate tumours.

As MK NEWS has previously reported, the charity's founder Dr Claire Guest discovered first-hand how dogs can smell out cancer, when her pet Daisy detected her breast cancer before any tests were done.

She said: "We know their sense of smell is extraordinary. They can detect parts per trillion; that's the equivalent of one drop of blood in two Olympic-sized swimming pools.

"We should not be turning our backs on these highly sensitive bio detectors just because they have furry coats."

Doctors currently carry out blood tests, biopsies and invasive examinations, but it is hoped the dogs can prevent these stages.

Patients will be asked if they want to take part in the trial and if it is successful, two national UK cancer clinics, The Graham Fulford Charitable Trust and the Prostate Cancer Support Group, will introduce it to their three clinics across the country.

Iqbal Anjum, a consultant urologist at the hospital, said: "This is an extremely exciting prospect.

"It is assumed that volatile molecules associated with the tumour would be released into the person's urine, making samples easy to collect and test."

Taking the lead: Sooty, one of the Medical Detection Dogs

Milton Keynes is among top cities for sport

MILTON Keynes has been named the 15th greatest sporting city.

In a survey of 5,000 fans by broadcaster ESPN, Milton Keynes – home to MK Dons, Badminton England and MK Lightning – was ranked 15th out of 48 locations nationwide.

The report marked the locations on 12 factors, including value for money, participation, local talent and transport links.

Milton Keynes scored the highest in the participation category – with 83 out of 100 – which looked at fans' satisfaction with club community involvement in their city.

This score ranked Milton Keynes fifth beneath Bath, Sheffield, Brighton and Dundee.

A spokesman for MK Lightning said: "We have seen a big increase in the number of members during the last season. Our junior team and MK Ice Hockey Academy have also become popular with members wanting to have fun, get fit and participate in the city's sport culture."

With Milton Keynes hoping to become the next International Sporting City, after recently being selected to host 2015 Rugby World Cup matches, it is no surprise it is creeping up the sporting success ladder.

A Milton Keynes Council spokesman said: "Milton Keynes is well placed to achieve its ambition to become an International Sporting City."

Despite scoring high in some categories, sport fans ranked Milton Keynes the worst for sporting history.

Taking hold: MK NEWS reader Barbara Barsony took this picture and the two below of the massive blaze being tackled by firefighters

Huge blaze tears through terrace

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A RESIDENTS' association is urging the community to pull together to help three families affected by a large fire on Friday.

Buckinghamshire Fire and Rescue Service received more than 11 emergency calls when a top floor room of an end-of-terrace property caught fire in Penryn Avenue, Fishermead, at 3.30pm.

The fire quickly spread to a neighbouring property and the end-of-terrace house partially collapsed. A third property was also slightly damaged.

At its peak, about 40 firefighters from seven fire stations were battling the flames. The fire service is still investigating how the blaze started.

Wazir Wazir, 17, who lives in Penryn Avenue, said: "From what I know, a fuse went off and he [one of the people living there] was in the garden. He came running outside and kids were screaming."

Volunteers from the British Red Cross Fire and Emergency Support Service, whose vehicle is housed at Bletchley Fire Station, attended to look after people who were affected.

Now Fishermead Residents' Association (FRA) is hoping people on the estate and neighbouring areas will collect furniture and clothes for the three families.

Campbell Park Parish Council opened the Trinity Centre on Friday to provide hot drinks and food for the families affected and have given FRA use of its store room for the collected items.

David Priest from the FRA said: "Those who would like to donate any household items, bedding, furniture and any like items please contact Terry Baines on 07846 697237 or email fishermeadra@yahoo.co.uk"

Pets rescued from burned-out house thanks to our reporter

Survived: Jessica with the two rabbits found in one of the damaged houses

ELEVEN rabbits were rescued from one of the damaged houses thanks to an eagle-eyed MK NEWS reporter.

On Monday, Jessica Duncan went to speak to people after Fishermead Residents' Association asked for donations to help the families rebuild their homes.

But as she walked past the properties she noticed a white rabbit on the top floor of one of the damaged houses.

Jessica said: "I had to take a double take as I couldn't believe it had survived.

"I called Buckinghamshire Fire and Rescue Service and the RSPCA. At one point I was scared the rabbit was going to jump."

A crew from Broughton Fire Station retrieved what they said were 'two damp and unhappy adult rabbits from the top floor of the house'.

The RSPCA also found an adult rabbit and eight baby rabbits in an hutch in the garden. As they had no food or water they were seized.

All 11 rabbits were taken to a vet by the RSPCA for check-ups.

One neighbour, who did not want to be named, told Jessica: "I believe the people who rented the property bred rabbits and I am not sure why they left them behind."

You could make a difference to a child or young person's life...

Milton Keynes Council is keen to recruit people who can offer a safe and loving home for a child/young person in care. We are especially seeking carers for teenagers. As a Milton Keynes Council foster carer you will be provided with a generous allowance plus support and training.

Our foster carers come from all walks of life and across a diverse community. They offer children and young people a nurturing, caring home environment where they can begin to thrive and reach their full potential.

It's a challenging role; one which will always ask for a great deal of input and support from you. However in providing a home to a child/young person who is unable to live with their family for a period of time you will be creating a wonderful experience for everyone involved.

Build road for HGVs

YOUR front page report last week concerning accidents on the M1 leads me to suggest we should begin to examine the idea of building separate roads for HGVs.

The present arrangement with juggernauts mixing road space with light private cars is becoming unsustainable. Lorries are heavier, faster and more numerous than ever. It always surprises me how in Britain, there seem to be far more HGVs on the roads than comparable countries in Europe or America. There is something radically wrong with the economics of road transport here.

Most HGV drivers are incredibly skillfull but a sizeable minority are bullies on the road. They go too fast, they change direction too abruptly, they overtake other heavy goods vehicles, at barely any speed differential, and they try to intimidate car drivers by closing to within a couple of feet when they are being held up.

A drive along any of our motorways now is to run the gauntlet of being shunted into by a truck when any hold-up occurs.

Railways spend a fortune on signalling to try and prevent accidents and yet our roads are allowed to become a free-for-all with any class of traffic mixing and no serious attempt made to control this mayhem.

I am not suggesting lorries cause all accidents, but when they are involved the threat to life and limb is seriously increased.

Segregation of freight traffic is becoming essential, in my view, unless we want to allow the daily litany of fatalities and serious injuries to continue.

Michael Weinberg
Giffard Park

Drivers make problems

THANK you for making the M1 death crash story headline news.

I drive on the same route every day between junctions 14 and 15 and I've seen people comment the problem is the roads. The problem is the drivers, not the roads.

I've seen drivers tailgate at 80-90mph, some on phones or paying no attention to what they are doing. I have had drivers pulling into my lane at the last minute, without any signal, which starts off a chain reaction of hitting the brakes sharply and causing a pile up.

Then you have the HGV, which does cause issues, some of them pull out into the middle lane and it takes them a good five to 10 minutes before they can overtake, which causes a queue in the middle and fast lane. Most of, not all, drivers from the Continent don't care how they drive. They cause some of the accidents on the M1, again, just pulling out without giving a signal. HGVs should have their own express lanes.

I always say a prayer before I leave my driveway every morning, but within five minutes I am in a rage by some stupid driver doing something ridiculous.

Drivers need to take more care. No matter how many lanes they build, it's about attitudes. No-one cares about their fellow man anymore, it's all about self, which is causing the deaths of innocent people just trying to get to work or home.

Joycelyn Lewis
Milton Keynes

A mess of lane system

REGARDING the white paint markings and the foolish layout on the Wolverton Road.

When you get to the junction for Stantonbury there are three lanes. The sensible option would be left to Stantonbury, straight ahead for Wolverton and right for Oakridge Park. But no, that's too easy – let's confuse the motorist. You have the nearside lane and the middle lane converging into one.

At first I tried the nearside lane as it shows an arrow straight ahead. As a consequence, I had a white van bearing down on me hooting his horn. So, I got into the middle lane and have to try to squeeze in before the road runs out.

Whoever thought of that brainpot idea, go and drive there yourself.

Marina is madness

AS A resident of Milton Keynes, I consider spending £88million on a marina in Campbell Park to be sheer madness (MK NEWS, August 5).

Campbell Park is the only place where some open space is left very close to the city centre. I do not know how many local people are interested in the project. It seems Bedford to MK waterway needs building and it may cost £26million.

It seems since Labour took control of the council, it is crazy about building houses and flats on open spaces in Milton Keynes. Bletchley town centre is saturated with flats and houses and there is no proper infrastructure to go with them.

I do not agree to building 300 homes very close to the city centre. The city centre is crowded with shops and restaurants. Already there is not enough parking space at peak times.

I am opposed to building more flats and houses in Milton Keynes without proper infrastructure such as schools, hospitals and public transport.

Arun Vaidyanathan
Sent via email

Not in Campbell Park

REGARDING the Campbell Park marina, more correctly this development should maybe be called the Newlands marina as that is effectively where the marina itself is proposed.

Certainly there will be development of two sections of the larger Campbell Park area, Campbell Park H3 & H4 are located between Overgate and the canal, so what people generally seem to refer to as Campbell Park, the parkland between Avebury and Silbury Boulevards won't be touched.

So, hopefully the comments/fears from Susan Hassett and Reynet Emmanuelle, who seems to think the whole of Campbell Park is going to be flattened, can be assuaged by them knowing exactly which part of the area is involved in this development.

A quick search of the internet pulls up several references to this development, the most pertinent references being those from MKDP and Milton Keynes Council. Both explain, in great detail, exactly what land is involved and what the aspirations for the sites are.

My main concern relates to the overall mass of the buildings in the development. From the artist's impression, the majority of the buildings appear to be three, if not four, storeys high with at least one block of flats in there. This is surely too high rise for an area of such beauty and tranquillity? Do we want trees to be swamped by the imposing forms of the housing?

Horror films to be made in city

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

MILTON Keynes is gaining a reputation for being one of the best places to make horror movies, according to the founders of a film company.

MJ Dixon and Anna McCarthy, who live in Eaglestone, moved here from Preston a year-and-a-half ago as they thought the streets of Milton Keynes had a futuristic vibe and were great for filming horror flicks. They were also attracted to MK because Superman IV was filmed here.

They set up Mycho Entertainment and say horror is so popular in the city they are trying to organise a version of Collectormania dedicated to the genre, albeit smaller than the popular festival.

"There are a lot of other people who do horror and zombie films in Milton Keynes and there is a community for it here," said Anna, Mycho's head of production.

"There is a cool little film network in Milton Keynes. It's great because Superman IV was shot here and it is in close proximity to London.

"The horror genre is on the rise with the most popular shows out there being things like The Walking Dead and American Horror Story. There are also things like the Zombie Pub Crawl in Stony Stratford.

"Milton Keynes looks very futuristic and eccentric and there are different types of locations with lots of people who seem really up for doing things."

MJ and Anna are working on their fifth horror film Slasher House Two, which is part of a crowdfunding initiative.

So far, £1,157 has been raised for the movie and the target is £3,000.

The other films made by Mycho are Slasher House, Legacy of Thorn, Hollower and Cleaver. They are all rated 18. The latter two films will be released later this year.

Anybody interested in contributing to the project can email mycho@live.co.uk

Internal review after Job Centre mistake

AN INTERNAL investigation is being held at a Job Centre branch in the city centre after a claimant received personal details belonging to someone else.

A 'horrified' Richard Fairbrother, 50, from Bletchley, says staff told him they could not '100 per cent guarantee' his confidential records were safe. It came after staff at the centre in Southgate House gave him someone else's details at an appointment on July 19.

A Department for Work and Pensions spokesman said they had apologised and were 'urgently investigating'.

Six extra trains to Euston

SIX additional train services will run between Milton Keynes Central and London Euston every day from 2018.

Great North Western Railway, an Arriva company, will run the services, which will also call at Crewe, Blackpool and Preston.

The service will also create 120 jobs and feature tilting Pendolino trains.

Iain Stewart, MP for Milton Keynes South who sits on the Transport Select Committee, said: "This is welcome news for MK commuters. Not only will it increase competition on the line but it will also free up capacity on other services."

Charlotte has TV debut in the bag

Breakthrough: Charlotte Jamme, owner of Mia Tui, with some of the handbags she has designed

A HANDBAG designer is getting ready for her on-screen debut when her bags feature on satellite giant QVC.

Charlotte Jamme, owner of Middleton-based Mia Tui, hopes the television appearance will open doors to a new client base.

The breakthrough comes hot on the heels of a grant of more than £3,000 from Velocity, a business advice company, which has enabled Charlotte to invest in marketing, search engine optimisation and social media advertising.

She said: "It's going to be incredibly exciting to see my bags on the television, it's been such hard work getting to this point but it's starting to pay off."

'Housing firm is overcharging us'

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

RESIDENTS have claimed they have been overcharged thousands of pounds by their housing association for 'mysterious services'.

The residents, who live in the North Crawley Road/ Addenbrookes Road area of Newport Pagnell, say they have been overcharged by Affinity Sutton for two years and are struggling to get the cash back.

Valerie Jayne said: "The company has sent us random bills for hundreds of pounds. Collectively, it has claimed thousands from us for mysterious services which it then doesn't deliver, such as gardening, gas services and window cleaning.

"We estimate we have paid about £24,000 a year for mysterious services, which are either 15 minutes of cleaning a fortnight, a bit of lawn mowing, or leaf trimming each month in the summer."

"Interestingly, it seems that it's only overcharging its shared ownership tenants."

According to residents, the housing association charged twice for building insurance and administration in April 2013 – a mistake only discovered recently.

Natasha Kelton added: "We have received no clarification to what our money is actually going towards."

Residents queried the charges with Affinity Sutton, but say poor communication has made resolution difficult.

A spokesman from Affinity Sutton said: "We are working with the respective freeholders to ensure charges provided to us and passed to residents are fair and reasonable.

"Last week, we wrote to our residents rectifying their 2015/2016 estimated service charge contributions. We are also working closely with the management company for Addenbrookes Road to clarify service charges there.

"Unfortunately this is proving to be a lengthy process but we are hopeful we will be able to report back to our residents very soon.

"We urge any residents concerned about their service charges to contact us so we can reassure them we are doing our utmost to resolve this situation."

£2m fine for missed rail targets

NETWORK Rail is facing a £2million fine for a breach of its licence.

An investigation by The Office of Rail and Road (ORR) into the firm's performance delivery for Southern, Govia Thameslink (GTR) and Scottish services in 2014-15 found the company breached its licence. Its performance on these services were below expectations and missed punctuality targets – causing severe disruptions and frustration for passengers.

Network Rail can offer reparations for affected passengers, instead of paying the fine.

Data breached at council

A STAFF member at Milton Keynes Council was sacked for accessing confidential records.

Research by civil liberties action group Big Brother Watch found council workers twice accessed personal data between April 2011 and April 2014.

One worker was sacked and the other received a warning.

A council spokesman told MK NEWS: "Should we discover a breach immediate action is taken."

Mum starts legal action over car

BY STEPHEN PENN
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A MOTHER is starting legal proceedings against a second-hand car company after it failed to refund her for a 'faulty' vehicle she was sold three months ago.

Nikki Horner, from Beanhill, bought a Ford Ka for her daughter Keaghan, 18, from Conquest Car Sales, run by Darren and Rachel Roberts, on May 17.

But only a few weeks later it emerged the ECU unit – which controls engine performance – was not working properly.

Nikki, 42, said: "It was Keaghan's first car, so she didn't know what to do. I could tell this wasn't right, so we contacted the company for them to fix it."

But after multiple trips to the garage in Houghton Conquest, the car remains unfixed and when Nikki questioned Mrs Roberts she claims she received insulting and threatening texts.

Nikki added: "In her texts Rachel repeatedly called me a moron, and when I said I would get the police involved she said to do it as she would just 'dissolve the company' and for me to 'watch out'."

Bad buy: Nikki Horner and her daughter Keaghan with the car

Nikki has since found out while the car was in the care of the company it was caught speeding three times, which was recorded on a black box fitted for insurance purposes.

She said: "This raised Keaghan's policy amount substantially and forced us to cancel it, which cost us a lot. We tried to explain this to Rachel but she did not listen and said that £900 [the car purchase price] was all she could refund us."

Nikki says since they were promised the refund she has had no correspondence from Rachel at all.

She commented: "I have sent multiple texts and tried to call, but have got nothing back, so now I am forced to get solicitors involved. I didn't think getting my daughter a car would cause this much trouble."

Conqest Car Sales refused to comment on the issue.

'Introduce new motorway test'

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

THE owner of a recruitment and heavy goods vehicle (HGV) company in Milton Keynes is calling on a driving test for motorways.

After seeing MK NEWS' front page last week, Gary Morris, owner of I Personnel Recruitment in Bletchley, said it is not the motorway design that is the problem, but drivers.

As this paper reported Ayse Yalcinkaya, 35, died on July 29 after a HGV crashed into the back of her black Volks-wagen Golf, causing a pile-up at junction 14.

Mr Morris, 49, said: "It is not the motorway that is causing the problems it is the drivers and expanding the motorways, as seen in other areas, doesn't solve the problem.

"We should not be driving close to one another, especially on the motorway.

"I think young people are taught how to get through the driving test and not how to drive."

Mr Morris is calling on the Government to introduce a motorway test.

He added: "They are the safest roads to drive on, but only when people know how to drive on them properly."

Mr Morris added that in the 29 years he has been driving an HGV, he has seen fewer traffic police on the roads.

He said: "It is only through education drivers are going to learn to use the roads properly. The law works in France and Germany so it could work here if it was enforced."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Lexi found after year on the run

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A COUPLE have been reunited with their beloved pet – nearly a year after she went missing.

Sue Jaycock, 53, of Salisbury Grove, Giffard Park, and her partner Steve Jacques, 53, had been desperately searching for eight-year-old Lexi since she went missing on September 1.

After several sightings in recent months, the pet owners were finally able to catch Lexi by Giffard Park Primary School earlier this month and bring her back home.

Speaking to MK NEWS, Sue said: "We had just moved in to this house in Giffard Park. We had someone come round to talk about dog walking. They accidentally left the door open and Lexi ran out on to the driveway and disappeared."

Sue and Steve put out posters, knocked on doors and posted messages on Facebook, but it was not until July 29 they spotted Lexi.

Sue added: "We saw her and she hid in a hedge by The Giffard Park pub. I was calling her, but she would not come out and ended up running away."

Sue and Steve kept returning to the same spot every day in an attempt to find Lexi once again and they managed to bring her home on Sunday, August 2.

She added: "She was just crossing the road to go into the Giffard Park Primary School playground. We put down food and finally she came close enough for my partner to catch her and walk her home.

"She hid under the dining room table for about 10 minutes, but then she suddenly seemed to remember where she was and started sitting on me. Apart from being very skinny, she seems healthy. My dog Bronwyn died two weeks ago and my mum died earlier this year. It has been a year of tragedies, but finding Lexi has been like a miracle."

'Cuts will stop volunteer help'

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A SERVICE which estimates it has saved Milton Keynes Council an average of £2.5million a year is set to be drastically reduced due to funding cuts.

Community Action:MK, a charity which co-ordinates voluntary events around the city, provides community mobilisers to eight areas – some of which are the most deprived in MK – to support people and organisations and develop local groups.

Community mobilisers have helped with schemes such as the lottery-funded Big Local Conniburrow and assisted the development and growth of local groups such as the Netherfield Doers.

But from September, areas such as Fishermead, Netherfield and Stantonbury will no longer benefit from the service.

In June Bruce Fenning, an expert in social return on investment, estimated the community mobiliser service brings a return of £8.15 for every £1 of investment.

Community mobilisers Robbie MacPherson, Tracy Whitmore and Stewart Ikin with photos of some of the events they instigated

Robbie Macpherson, chief operating officer for Community Action:MK, understands cuts need to be made, but believes the decision will prove costly.

He said: "They have make cuts somewhere, but I think in the longer term, they are going to have more demand on the council's services as a result so I do think the move is short-sighted."

Tracy Whitmore worked as a community mobiliser for eight years. She believes the role offers a more accessible service to people in need.

She added: "Community mobilisers work on the ground with communities – getting people into activities, getting to know them and helping them to realise their own dreams and volunteer in their own groups."

From September, a single part-time community mobiliser will operate in Conniburrow and Great Linford due to grants from the Community Foundation and Great Linford Parish Council.

Dispelling rubbish

LAST Wednesday reporter JESSICA DUNCAN spent the day with staff from Serco on the green bin run, the black and pink sack round (known as the 'dusts') and helped the street pickers. Despite the odd maggot and 'bin juice' it was surprisingly good fun. Here's what she learned:

■ Starting at 6.45am (some crews begin earlier) and running around an estate for the day is a lot harder than you think. You really have to know your route, remembering all the small closes, and, more importantly, the regular offenders who put the wrong items in their bins.

■ You have to put the right items in your bins. If you put the wrong stuff in your green bin, the crew has to leave it, attach a flyer to it and call the office and tell them about the bin. All of this makes the crew's job a lot harder.

Hands on: Jessica Duncan helping out the street pickers

■ The crews can walk up to 10 kilometres in a day and a marathon in a week.

■ Workers are considerate. When I was tired and just wanted to chuck the bins back, they were still making sure they were matched up with the correct houses.

■ Crews try to put residents first by planning their routes to be the least disruptive. They try to get out of the way, but if there is no way around and you have to wait a moment, don't get angry, try and push your way past, or even mount the curb.

■ The drivers have to be pros – the way some people parked cars despite knowing it was bin day was shocking. I had to close my eyes because it felt like such a tight squeeze sometimes.

■ John, who I spent time with on the green bin run, is studying to be a civil engineer and one of the lorry drivers, Dave, is a former head chef who was looking for a change.

■ It can be a dangerous job – needles, glass and knives have all been found in black sacks. A few years ago a bin man had his leg sliced open when someone put a kitchen knife in their black sack.

■ All the trucks are worth more than £200,000 and they are really high tech with

■ They barely stop for breaks – I was surprised with how little they stopped, but the harder they work, the sooner they can go home.

■ All crews tried their best to clear all the mess around the split bin bags and bins.

■ You need to have a sense of humour – with maggots, the odd rat and a lot of bin juice, you need to have to find some way to keep smiling.

IS YOUR FINAL SALARY PENSION SCHEME BAD FOR YOUR WEALTH?

It has long been a commonly held view that so called final salary pension schemes are sacrosanct. They are generally regarded as gold-plated and secure. However, since the new Pensions Freedom rules were introduced by the government on 6 April the whole ball game has changed significantly.

One of the many pensions changes introduced was the ability to not only leave your money purchase pension to your spouse but also to other members of your family such as children and grandchildren. This means that if you want your pension to survive you and benefit your family you can now do so because your pension need not die with you.

The problem with final salary pensions is that like annuities they die with you. Pretty much the best you can hope for is that your final salary pension scheme will provide a 50% widow's/widower's pension on your death. On the second of your deaths it dies with you. This is particularly pertinent if it is a large pension.

We have a male client who is in his fifties with a wife and children. He has a company final salary pension scheme worth c.£900K.

Tony Byrne
Financial Planning Director
Wealth And Tax Management

In the last year he has been diagnosed with cancer and although he has recently been given the all clear his life expectancy will probably be much reduced. He is quite wealthy and has other large pensions so retirement income is going to be plentiful in any case.

We did a cashflow forecast comparing the income from his final salary scheme with that from a personal pension based on the pension transfer value offered by his previous employer's pension scheme. We assumed investment growth of just 5% p.a. in a new personal pension. Staggeringly for all time periods up to and way past retirement his and his widow's personal pension income was no worse than the income from his final salary pension scheme would have been. More importantly the value of his personal pension fund did not fall much at all in value! This means that his family in this situation would have been substantially better off to the tune of nearly £900K! He decided to transfer his pension preferring the "bird in the hand" approach.

Please do bear in mind this is just one isolated case. Every client's situation is different. Professional advice is essential.

Holly moving on from X Factor no

HOLLY Brewer is moving on from her rejection from the X Factor – despite receiving four yeses from the judges at her audition.

Speaking to MK NEWS, Holly said: "Everyone in this industry knows you can't keep going over things. I believe everything is meant to be. You've just got to move on."

Holly performed at Xscape Unplugged on Friday – an ongoing event encouraging families to put down their phones and take part in a variety of activities.

Rejected turbine may still be built

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A WIND turbine the size of Big Ben could still be built near Bletchley – despite the application being refused by Milton Keynes Council.

The 90-metre high turbine – which at twice the height of Xscape, would be one of the city's tallest structures – was refused in December as it would be visually 'overwhelming and dominant'.

FCC Environment was seeking planning permission to build and operate the single turbine at its Bletchley Landfill Site, just south of the Blue Lagoon.

But the energy company has launched an appeal against the refusal, which means a national Planning Inspector will get the final say.

The turbine would produce approximately 900kw of energy, powering 132 homes every year. It would operate for about 25 years before being decommissioned.

A number of residents have raised concerns about the impact on the landscape.

Kirsty Luce, of Skye Crescent, Newton Leys, said: "The turbine will be completely out of context with the surroundings."

Newton Longville Parish Council clerk, Mike Galloway, added: "We would like to see the appeal refused."

FCC did not comment by the time this paper went to press.

Meanwhile, plans for four even taller turbines of 115 metres at Cowpasture Farm near Newton Longville were refused on Friday.

Prices rising as homes sell fast

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

HOUSE prices have rocketed at one city estate due to a huge increase in demand – with only one property available to buy at the development.

The price of homes at Oakgrove Village, off V10 Brickhill Street, have increased by an average of £200,000 in just three years.

Four out of the seven properties in the most recent collection of family homes – Ouzel Island – were reserved on the same day they were launched.

And to meet demand 10 more properties are due to be released at Ouzel Island in September.

Paul Quelch, land and new homes director at city estate agents Connells, said: "Since phase one launched at Oakgrove Village, the value of properties has increased consistently ahead of the norm in Milton Keynes.

"The market has grown over the whole town, but the demand in Oakgrove has outstripped every other site month in month out."

The development of about 300 homes also features a Waitrose supermarket, Metro Bank and a Costa Coffee, as well as nearby schools catering for children from nursery age to sixth form.

A primary school linked to Oakgrove School is also due to open in 2016.

Susan Young, sales and marketing director at Crest Nicholson Regeneration, which has built the properties, said: "The four and five-bed properties were originally on the market for just under £600,000 but now they are ranging between £600,000 and £800,000."

Museum helping kids get creative

THE Summer Bytes festival at The National Museum of Computing is encouraging families and children to get creative.

Kids have been visiting the museum at Bletchley Park all week, with a host of activities on offer including building Lego robots and playing a virtual reality version of the Elite: Dangerous computer game.

More online at www.onemk.co.uk.

Youngsters' fuel app picks up major prize

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

HAVE you ever put the wrong fuel in your vehicle? A team from The National Museum of Computing (TNMOC) has developed an app to tackle the issue and won Best in Show at the Young Rewired State Festival of Code.

Eleven young coders developed four different apps for smartphones and tablets at the museum at Bletchley Park, the home of Colossus, the world's first electronic computer, last week. They were competing in the world's largest hackathon for young people.

At the end of the week, many went to the finals in Birmingham where one app created at TNMOC by James Thatcher, 10, Raoul Vangerow, 14, and Julien Vertz, 17, won top prize.

The team's ingenious app called PUMPS was designed to make sure no-one puts the wrong fuel in their vehicle when filling up at a garage.

Using publicly available data, their app identifies a vehicle's number plate when it pulls on to a filling station forecourt, links it with data held by the DVLA to find out the engine and model number and communicates with the filling station to disable pumps that would deliver the wrong fuel. The judges were very impressed by the research and coding that went into the project and by its highly desirable purpose.

Other apps created at TNMOC were two music player apps and one that measured distances in unusual ways, such as the number of chessboards between Milton Keynes and Bedford.

End of the line for coffee van

BY MAY BULMAN
editor@mk-news.co.uk

COMMUTERS at Wolverton train station aren't happy that the small van that has provided their morning coffee for years is having to pack up and leave.

Milan Zekavica, 57, has been bringing Mil's On Wheels Café to the station for more than six years.

But it will all end today, after Milan was told by London Midland that, now the new station is up and running, his rent is increasing to the 'contracted rate'.

He said: "The contracted rent is high considering the footfall. While the station was being built I got a reduced rate, but now it's shot back up. The profit for this business is actually very small. Now that profit is being squeezed even more."

Commuters have expressed their anger.

Nikki Clarke, who commutes to Euston three times a week, said: "We've been coming here for years. There's usually a whole host of people standing here and we've all got to know each other.

"It just makes a really lovely start to the morning and that's not present in most stations."

Meanwhile, a new retail outlet, Dream Bean Café, opened in the station building two months ago.

Mary Emilianus, who owns the shop along with her husband and works behind the counter, said: "Competition with the van outside makes it hard. London Midland has told us he'll be leaving on August 12. Business should pick up after that."

A London Midland spokesman added: "Commercial relationships between London Midland and its tenants are confidential. Ultimately it is the tenant's decision if they want to stay or go."

Last day: Milan Zekavica with some of his customers

Rare puppy settling in to her new home

Puppy love: Wilma and her owner Frances Godfrey

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A RETIRED couple have welcomed a puppy from one of the rarest breed of dogs into their family.

Jim and Frances Godfrey adopted Wilma, the first stabyhoun to live in Milton Keynes, about four weeks ago and are delighted with the newest addition to their home.

Stabyhouns originate from Friesland, a province in the Netherlands, and there are only 6,000 worldwide – 34 of which reside in the UK.

Until import rules changed on January 1, 2012, it wasn't possible to bring puppies into the UK.

Jim and Frances undertook a lengthy application process with the UK Stabyhoun Association and were on the waiting list for a puppy for 10 months.

Speaking to MK NEWS, Frances said: "My husband found out about the stabyhoun on the internet – we had never heard of them before.

"A lot of people have confused her with a springer spaniel or a border collie.

"But for us it is not about her breed or how rare she is – she is our family pet. We think of her as the best breed for us."

Jim and Frances were primarily looking for a breed that would be friendly with their six grandchildren. About the size of a small labrador, stabyhouns were initially bred as a family and farm dog.

The UK Stabyhoun Association manages the introduction of the breed into the UK, as well as implementing a controlled and closely monitored breeding programme.

Anyone interested in a Stabyhoun puppy should email christina@stabyhounUK.com or visit www.stabyhounuk.com for more information.

Bid to remember Rhiley with ride

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A FATHER is remembering the happy memories of his three-year-old 'princess' and raising money for charity by going back to her favourite place – Peppa Pig World.

Richie Bennetts' daughter Rhiley was one of the youngest children to battle Atypical Teratoid Rhabdoid Tumour (AT/RT), which is a very rare and fast growing cancerous tumour of the central nervous system.

Rhiley passed away on April 23, two weeks after her third birthday. She was given a Disney princess-themed funeral.

Afterwards, Rhiley's mum Kim, 27, set up Rhiley's Smile to try and raise awareness.

To help raise money for other families now facing the same horror, Richie, 29, from Milton Keynes, is training to ride more than 117 miles on October 24 to Peppa Pig World, where the family shared some of their last happy memories together.

Kim said: "When he first told me, I was like, really? You're not in the best of shape. But since then he has been training really hard and on the weekend went to Oxford and back.

Fundraising challenge: Richie Bennett and his daughter Rhiley

"There is no research into AT/RT which is just disgusting.

"Rhiley's treatment was based on a German treatment plan so more needs to be done in the UK. I hope Rhiley's Smile will raise awareness of this.

"We have already dropped off toys, washing powder and more at Ronald McDonald House in Oxford, where we stayed with Rhiley."

As MK NEWS previously reported, residents pulled together to raise funds to decorate Rhiley's bedroom and new family home to make it as nice as possible for her final months.

Kim said: "There were more than 20 people in our home decorating while we had our final holiday with Rhiley at the beach.

"It was amazing and there is no way we would have been able to cope with decorating the house."

To support Rhiley's Smile visit www.onemk.co.uk

Science of survival

BY PHIL MCELENEY
editor@mk-news.co.uk

DESPITE the science community's fears of large cuts in Government money, the Open University has upped its spending and is leading the way with world-class research.

The OU has added to its recent work with the Rosetta space mission by investing an extra £2.5million on a space research centre. And research topics can be as wide-ranging as identifying prostate cancer and discovering the age of rocks.

But the university has not escaped cuts over the years and has increasingly had to carry out commercial research – where it is hired by a company – rather than pure studies, where the scientists themselves decide what to do.

Dr Geraint Morgan said: "We produce solutions to customer-led challenges and it's multidisciplinary. We work in partnership with a lot of companies."

Dr Morgan's department has recently finished building a piece of equipment for use on all of the UK's submarines, which will also be sold to foreign navies.

Searching for water: Dr Jessica Barnes is doing pioneering work

"Then we also have a machine that helps with the diagnosis of prostate cancer," he added.

"About 80,000 out of the 120,000 men diagnosed with prostate cancer don't have it. These men have two weeks off work after receiving treatment. Say if these two weeks are costing between £300 and £1,000 per man then that is a lot of money saved."

The OU played a significant part in the recent Rosetta mission, during which it built Ptolemy – a device which has detected key elements in the formation of life on earth – and is building on that success.

One of the most notable pieces of equipment at the university is a £2million NanoSIMS machine – one of only three in the UK – that analyses 'stardust and moon rocks'.

Dr Jessica Barnes, who does a lot of work with the machine, said: "We are trying to find water in moon rocks and we are the first using the machine to do that.

"I'm trying to do stuff no-one else is doing. No-one else in the world is doing this. We are here to push boundaries."

"We lose our science base at our peril. Once our leading position is lost it will be extremely difficult to regain it."

Jane to take to the skies for wing walk

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A CHARITY chief executive is realising a lifelong ambition by undertaking a daring wing walk to raise money for Age UK Milton Keynes.

Jane Palmer will take to the skies at Damyns Hall Aerodrome in Essex on August 29. She hopes to raise £2,000 to fund the charity's information and advice services.

Rather than choose a sponsored marathon or walk, Jane was inspired to wing walk by her childhood hero – Fred Astaire.

She said: "As a very small girl my first hero and crush was Fred Astaire. My favourite film was Flying Down to Rio, with the ladies dancing on the wings of the plane!

"I have been gliding and abseiling and this is the next step. People keep saying I'm brave, but I'm just excited."

Age UK Milton Keynes' information and advice services provide emotional and practical support to more than 500 vulnerable and socially-isolated older people every month, free of charge.

After recent funding cuts from Milton Keynes Council, Jane, who is the charity's chief executive, is wing walking to raise the money to keep the service going.

She added: "Milton Keynes has the fastest growing ageing population in the UK. We have just done a report with the Open University and it has become more and more obvious there are so many people in Milton Keynes that are on their own."

Jane has received more than £1,200 in donations so far, but is still welcoming contributions. If you would like to make a donation, visit localgiving.com/fundraising/janepalmer

IS THIS YOUR GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY?

ANTIQUES VALUATION ROADSHOW COMES TO MAIDENHEAD

IN ALMOST every home in the country there is a corner where something of value lies hidden away that could be turned into cash.

Thats the message organisers of the Pastcenturies Valuation Roadshow wish to impart as the company visits selected venues throughout England.

Often valuable and antique articles have been hidden away for security reasons and lie forgotten about. The good news is that many of these items have increased in value in recent years and are now sought after by collectors and dealers alike.

With many years of experience, and using the latest in information technology, we can value practically every type of object from paintings to porcelain, glass, bronze, art, jewellery. In fact most items of interest.

Pastcenturies are holding Antiques Venues throughout the Country. On a recent Roadshow an elderly gentleman had quite a suprise. He produced an 18 carat Gold pocketwatch. Although the watch was damaged beyond repair he received £720 for the Gold content alone. At the same event a lady was paid £600 for a group of World War One medals she had thought were of little value. These are common occurances at the roadshows.

Free Valuations

With it's free valuation service, and no obligation to sell, what is there to lose? Bring along anything you think of interest, there's no limit to the amount of items. It may be well worth your while!

Proms in the Park makes a triumphant return to city

PACK your picnic, fill up on fizz and join in the party as Proms in the Park returns on Friday.

The Parks Trust and Milton Keynes City Orchestra have once again joined forces to present an uplifting and inspiring celebration of stirring favourites at the amphitheatre in Campbell Park.

The orchestra's open-air concert will be followed by a spectacular firework display.

Last year's uplifting music included patriotic numbers like Rule Britannia and Dambusters.

This year's musical programme, with conductor Hilary Davan Wetton and soprano soloist Janice Watson, includes Rossini's Overture: The Barber of Seville and Vaughan Williams' Fantasia on Greensleeves. The gates open at 6.30pm and the performance starts at 8pm, lasting two hours with an interval. Visitors can take picnics and seating, but gazebos, pets and barbecues are forbidden.

Tickets cost £14 for adults, £8 for children and £35 for a family of four. To book visit www.theparkstrust.com

Parking is available at the centre:mk in CMK.

modelrailways

THE Silverfox DCC Model Railway Club is holding its fifth exhibition on Saturday.

The display will be housed at Woughton Leisure Centre's main hall with ample free parking.

Exhibited models will include a modern Japanese setting with a busy double track mainline station on an island platform and a post-privatisation layout based on the railways around Stockport. Traders include Keith's Model Railways, Model World (Newport Pagnell), JB's Models and more.

The exhibition will be signposted from Chaffron Way and will take place between 10am and 4pm. Entry is £5 for adults and £2.50 for children.

getmoving

GET your little ones moving with dancers Eleanor Sikorski and Flora Wellesley Wesley at MK Gallery.

Children over seven and their families can meet the dancers who will lead a movement and art workshop, which will explore how arms, legs, faces, feet and other body parts can become tools of communication.

Children will dance to music and make physical patterns with different materials.

Two family workshops are being held on Friday between 10am and noon and from 2-4pm. Sessions are free but must be booked at www.mkgallery.org

dirtydancing

FOLLOWING the release of their debut album The Making Of and their new single Swarm, The Bohicas will be performing at The Craufurd Arms on Friday.

Rock and roll painted in vivid primary colours, the band plan to deliver a barrage of killer hooks, razor blade riffs and choruses to drag you on to the dancefloor.

Supported by Sean Grant & The Wolfgang, tickets cost £8 and fans are strongly advised to buy them in advance.

The event is open to all over the age of 14. For more information, or to buy tickets, visit www.seetickets.com

IN ITS latest monthly column THE PARKS TRUST tells you what's going on at Furzton Lake

IF YOU are looking for a place to go on a relaxing walk, do a spot of fishing or enjoy a picturesque cycle route, then look no further than Furzton Lake.

Its open views make it a popular choice for joggers, cyclists and walkers.

Providing a striking landmark at Furzton is the Triple Star Head sculpture by Romanian artist Paul Neagu, shaped like a comet with its tail erupting from the earth.

Look out too for the Silhouetted Portals by Wendy Hitchings – wooden sculptures on the islands near Lynmouth Crescent, which have proved popular with the bird population.

During your visit to Furzton Lake you may spot a wide variety of bird life, including mallards, tufted ducks and great crested grebes.

In recent years, grey herons have nested on the two islands in the lake.

If you are very fortunate, you may see a kingfisher darting low across the water or a red kite soaring high overhead.

powerrangers

THIS is your chance to win an incredible £400 worth of Power Rangers goodies.

Saban Brands and Toys 'R' Us have joined forces to celebrate the launch of Saban's Power Rangers Dino Charge, the newest season of the iconic Power Rangers franchise.

The new season, which currently airs on Nickelodeon in the US and will roll out globally throughout 2015, delivers action, humour, excitement and entertainment, in addition to the core themes of friendship, teamwork, fitness and helping others.

Power Rangers Dino Charge introduces all-new villains, monsters, Zords and Megazords.

If you visit the Milton Keynes branch of Toys 'R' Us on August 23 – between 11am and 5pm – you can even receive a free photo from a Power Rangers photo-booth and see the all new CHARGED UP Power Rangers Dino Charge product range.

But we have also teamed up with Bandai and Fisher Price to offer you the chance to win a toy bundle of Power Rangers goodies worth £400.

All you need to do is answer this question:

What is the newest series of Power Rangers called?

A) Monster Charge
B) Dino Charge
C) Mega Charge

WIN Power Rangers goodies worth £400

To enter log onto www.onemk.co.uk/lifestyle/competitions Alternatively send your answer, name, address and daytime telephone number to MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, MK15 0DU by noon on Wednesday, August 19. The editor's decision is final lordfarquaad

MK LIFE interviewed actor and comedian Gerad Carey ahead of Shrek The Musical coming to Milton Keynes Theatre.

Gerad plays the hysterical character of Lord Farquaad, bringing the best one liners from the film to the stage.

He said: "We more or less stick to the storyline of the first film, but what is different is that we delve into the character's back stories a lot more, and the music of course.

"You find out why Lord Farquaad is small and much more.

"The character has been so carefully created and brilliantly designed and how I operate the puppet is so clever."

Due to Lord Farquaad's size, Gerad has to perform the show on his knees.

"I do have to go to the gym a lot to work on my core and then my knees and back take less of the impact," he said.

"My foam muscle roller is key too and I have physio three to four times a week."

Shrek The Musical will be at the theatre from Tuesday for three weeks. Tickets cost between £15 and £45 at www.atgtickets.com/milton-keynes

ceramicworkshop

INSPIRED by ancient Japanese planting and irrigation, Milton Keynes ceramicist Andrew Macdermott will be hosting a creative workshop suitable for children aged five to 12 on Friday.

From 11am until 3pm at Milton Keynes Arts Centre, children and their families are invited to design and create their own planters. The works will be displayed in the gallery in the Power Plant exhibition and then be available to be collected.

The event is free and all are welcome. Bookings should be made on 01908 608108. Information can be found at miltonkeynesartscentre.org

tenstrings

CANADIAN folk trio Ten Strings and a Goatskin will perform at The Stables on Friday, August 21 at 8.45pm.

Having won the 2015 East Coast Music Association award for World Music Recording of the Year, as well as being nominated for the 2013 Canadian Folk Music Awards, the bilingual band are sure to attract a strong folk following.

The group's combination of Irish, Acadian, French and maritime cultures with a mix of traditional and original sounds has not gone unnoticed and they have attracted fans in both Europe and the US.

Tickets cost £10 in advance from www.stables.org or £12 on the door.

Oakgrove

ON THE new development of Oakgrove Village is this fabulous semi-detached house with triple glazing.

This is not your average two-bedroom house and must be viewed to be fully appreciated.

Nearby are sought-after schools and shops and it is in close proximity to Ouzel Valley Park and Willen Lake.

Oakgrove is located with good road links to the M1 and Central Milton Keynes with its large shopping centre and a wide range of leisure facilities.

In brief, the property comprises an entrance hall, a downstairs cloakroom, lounge, kitchen with integrated appliances, master bedroom with dressing area and en-suite, a further double bedroom, bathroom, front and rear gardens and driveway providing off-road parking for three vehicles.

Priced at £269,995, this property is not to be ignored.

For more information, or to view, call Inspired Sales & Lettings on 01908 690700.

What Your Agent Has To Say

Summer a shining example with phenomenal sales

I WOULD like to start by saying we have had one of the best summer markets in three years. June and July's sales results have been particularly phenomenal.

I think the main reason for this increased sales activity is that there seems to be a lot more confidence in the market generally from prospective buyers, coupled with a really strong appetite for home ownership rather than renting.

I believe the other key factor to be that mortgage lenders appear to be relaxing their criteria for lending and are accepting buyers that are looking to both invest/purchase their dream home with smaller deposits, compared to a couple of years ago.

One of our biggest challenges in today's market place is a shortage of new properties to meet the increased demand. I'm not entirely sure why there has been a slowdown in terms of new instructions. However the demand is definitely high for property and we certainly have very good buyers in fantastic buying positions looking to invest in their new homes.

At Simpson and Partners we pride ourselves on giving honest and realistic advice to all of our clients, be it selling their family home or purchasing onwards.

Please ensure that you are registered with your local property experts to enable us to give you our full attention and provide you with a bespoke property searching service.

We would be delighted to hear from you and to assist you further. Please call the office on 01480 860 600 or email kimb@simpsonandpartners.co.uk.

We look forward to working with you.

SHIFTING GEAR'S NEVER BEEN SO REWARDING

CLASS C DRIVERS | MILTON KEYNES | 36 HOURS PER WEEK
£17,691 PER ANNUM (£9.45 PER HOUR)

Last year, shop donations helped Oxfam to raise around £23m to support people in poverty – a huge contribution that helped to make a difference to thousands of lives. But donations need to be managed and distributed. As an experienced driver, that's where you come in. You'll carry out scheduled collections of surplus stock from shops and donation banks, deliver processed stock to customers and transport items to and from warehouses – making careful driving your main priority at all times.

To succeed, you'll need the enthusiasm to carry out routine and often physical tasks – keeping to a schedule and delivering results on time and to target. First rate people skills are a must. As is the ability to work both within a team and on your own initiative. While knowledge of tachograph rules and vehicle regulations mean you're likely to have come from a similar role. Bring all this, plus a clean Class C licence, and a Driver CPC, and you'll soon be putting your experience to use in a role that's more worthwhile.

(THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES)
(VARIOUS ROADS, BRADWELL COMMON) (PROHIBITION OF WAITING AND LOADING) ORDER 2013) VARIATION ORDER 2015

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes has on 11th August 2015 made the above two Orders under Section 1 the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984. The Orders will affect all classes of vehicles and have the following effect along parts of roads in Central Milton Keynes:-

- The introduction of 'No Waiting at Any Time' restrictions along parts of Bradwell Common Boulevard and Brill Place;

Exemptions from the proposed Order include emergency service vehicles, military vehicles, statutory undertakers, building, demolition and excavation and disabled persons badge holders.

This Order will come into effect from 17th August 2015

Copies of the Order as made together with map showing the areas referred to may be inspected during opening hours at Milton Keynes Library, 555 Silbury Boulevard, Central Milton Keynes and during normal office hours at Milton Keynes Council, Civic Offices, 1 Saxon Gate East, Milton Keynes. Please quote reference PH-S1-TRO-121.

Any person wishing to question the validity of the Order or any provision contained in the Order on the grounds that it is not within the powers conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act, or on the grounds that any requirement of the Act or any Instrument made under the Act has not been compiled with may, within six weeks from the date on which the Order was made, apply to the High Court for that purpose.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES
(FOOTPATH 32, OAKGROVE)
(TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2015

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes has on 11th August 2015 made an Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, the effect of which will be to temporarily prohibit any access to or along the entire length of Footpath 32, Oakgrove in order to allow works to be carried out on site at the Oakgrove Housing Development on or near to the said footpath.

The Council is satisfied that the temporary closure Order is necessary to prevent the likelihood of danger to the public or serious damage to the footpath which is not attributable to such works.

The Order will come into operation on 17th August 2015 and will continue in force for a maximum period of 6 months or until the said works have been completed, whichever is the sooner. If the works are not completed within the maximum period stated, a further Order may be made.

A temporary footpath that will run adjacent to Footpath 32 will be constructed to be used as an alternative route during the closure period.

There will be no exemptions from the provisions of the Order.

The closure will be clearly signed in accordance with Chapter 8 of the Traffic Signs Manual.

The temporary closure will be in force on the date shown when indicated by the appropriate traffic signs displayed along the affected footpath.

Any person committing a breach of the order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as is prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES
(ROADS OR PARTS OF ROADS WITHIN BLETCHLEY, BRADVILLE AND OLNEY)
(TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2015

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes has on 11th August 2015 made an Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, the effect of which will be to temporarily prohibit vehicles from entering, waiting or proceeding along the following lengths of road in order to allow maintenance and repair works to be carried out on the highway:-

19th August 2015

- St George's Road, Bletchley – Between St Patrick's Way and St Andrew's Road.

  Whilst the above length of road is closed the alternative route will be via St Patrick's Way, St John's Road and St Andrew's Road (and vice versa).

  Controlled access to properties along St George's Road will be maintained at all times.

20th August 2015

- Spring Lane, Olney – Between Dagnall Road and Paxton Close.

  Whilst the above length of road is closed the alternative route will be via Spring Lane, High Street, Weston Road and Dagnall Road (and vice versa).

Fastest Ever Audi S8 Sets New Benchmark

Blistering performance more commonly associated with low-slung supercars can now be enjoyed in the lap of luxury in the new Audi S8 plus. The 605PS S8 plus surges to 62 mph in just 3.8 seconds and can top out at 189mph, drawing on a maximum torque reserve of 750Nm.

Supercar pace and archetypal Audi A8 luxury converge in the Audi S8 plus, a new evolution of the already formidable S8 performance saloon developed using the combined expertise of Audi and its specialist high performance division quattro GmbH. Ramping up power from the 520PS offered by the 'standard' S8 to an intoxicating 605PS, the S8 plus is also capable of producing up to 750Nm of torque on demand - the highest output of any Audi in the current model range. It will open for ordering in October, priced from £97,700 OTR, and first UK deliveries are expected to commence in January 2016.

Encased by the lightweight, predominantly aluminium Audi Space Frame, which in isolation weighs just 231kg, is a modified version of the 4.0 TFSI engine already used to power the current 520PS S8. This sonorous V8 biturbo unit has been extensively modified and gains special engine management control with speed and charge pressure boosting to its modified exhaust valves. The inner geometry of the turbocharger has also been optimised for efficiency.

An overboost function facilitates the maximum torque elevation from 700Nm (516.3 lb-ft) to a muscular 750Nm (553.2 lb-ft) when required. As a result, a mere 3.8 seconds is all it takes for the stately super saloon to blast past 62 mph, after which it swiftly pulls towards an electronically limited 155mph top speed. Upon choosing the optional dynamic package, top speed increases to 189mph, and fade-resistant carbon-fibre reinforced ceramic brakes are added, featuring brake calipers finished in anthracite-grey with the Audi ceramic logo.

The full force of this prodigious output is transmitted to the road via an eight-speed tiptronic transmission and quattro all-wheel drive. A sports differential apportions the torque between the rear wheels for optimum directional stability. Chassis highlights include the S sports adaptive air suspension and dynamic steering, both of which have been tuned specifically for the S8 plus. UK specification models are fitted with 21-inch alloy wheels in a unique high-gloss black double-spoke design shod with specially designed size 275/35 tyres.

The standard dual-branch sports exhaust system opens out into two oval high-gloss black tailpipes on the left and right. It is modified by Quattro GmbH and gives the S8 plus an unmistakable V8 sound.

Carbon fibre is also used on the flaps in the side air inlets and the blade on the front apron. The rear diffuser, Singleframe front grille, air inlets and window trims form part of the black styling package, as do the mirror housings. Distinctive design characteristics of the S8 plus also include darkened tail lights and a rear lip spoiler in body colour. As an option, the mirror housings and rear spoiler can also be specified in carbon fibre.

Subtle S8 logos adorn the front and rear with V8 T badges on the front wings. A matt-effect paint finish in floret silver is exclusively available on the S8 plus. All of the colours offered on the S8 are also offered for the S8 plus.

Matrix LED headlights are standard, complemented by dynamic turn signals front and rear. These state-of-the-art lights use mapping data from the MMI Navigation Plus with MMI Touch and other sensors to individually dim or illuminate the 25 small, individual LEDs as needed. They project an extremely broad pool of light without causing glare to oncoming traffic.

Inside, the S sports comfort sport seats with 22-way adjustability and memory function can be exclusively upholstered in black full-leather with contrasting stitching and piping in Arras red as an option, along with the headlining and rear parcel shelf in black Alcantara.

A contrasting red thread woven into the upper inlay can also be specified in favour of the carbon atlas inlays fitted as standard. Black piano paint trims the gear selector lever of the tiptronic and the centre console. Characteristic of the interior of the S models are the round instruments with grey dials and white needles and the stainless steel pedals.

Like the more familiar S8 the new plus model is built exclusively on the 'standard' wheelbase. It offers extensive standard features over and above its 520PS counterpart's already exhaustive list. In addition to highlights like the power-operated hands-free boot lid, advanced key, 14-speaker BOSE surround system and advanced parking system with top view camera, the plus version gains privacy glass, power door closure and adaptive cruise control with Audi pre-sense front.

Smart Fortwo

FORTWO TWO

The Smart Fortwo is a car that almost defies comparison. Should you try to put it up against typical citycars, it's often found wanting objectively, but this much-improved third-generation car builds on the appeal of its predecessors and finds itself occupying an increasingly premium niche. There's a lot to like about it.

The Fortwo is offered with two engines, both three-cylinder petrol-powered units. The 899cc turbocharged engine develops 89bhp, while the 999cc normally aspirated engine a mere 70bhp. Torque figures are 135 and 90Nm respectively. The 999cc powerplant isn't quick at all. The 'sprint' to 62mph is a leisurely 14.4 second amble but the throttle response is a bit more faithful than in the more surging turbocharged car. That may make city driving that bit more relaxing, as indeed will the updated transmission. Gone is the vile robotised manual change that had your head jerking about like a Thunderbird puppet with each gearchange. In its place comes a much preferable five-speed manual box with a six-speed twin-clutch automatic following on its heels.

The suspension delivers far more refinement than before, which belies the fact that the car's length hasn't changed at all. What has changed is the fact that it's 11cm wider, and that extra track width offers a bit more of a reassuring feel when cornering. The turning circle remains tiny at just 6.95m, and because there are no driveshafts going to the front wheels, they can be angled right out to 45 degrees, which makes the Fortwo able to undertake even the most optimistic-looking parking manoeuvre.

The pan-faced visage of the latest Fortwo is a big departure from the somewhat feline look of the two prior Fortwo models. The tridion safety cell - something of a Smart trademark - is present and correct, so people won't be confused about what they're looking at. A characteristic swage line is followed by the fuel filler cap on the right and the air inlet for the rear engine under the B-pillar on the left. Side rubbing strips shuck off car park knocks. Where previous Fortwos have been quite slab-sided, Smart's designers have this time attempted to massage a bit of shape into the flank of the Fortwo with an almost Volvo-style shoulder line that's most apparent as it melds into the rear light cluster.

In order to buy the style statement and the extreme manoeuvrability of the Smart Fortwo, you need to make quite a few compromises. Granted, the car does drive a lot better than before and it's even a bit more practical, but it just can't level with the sustained excellence of the latest crop of citycars. It's been a niche product to date and while the latest car is a bit more rounded, it'll stay that way. Smart recognises this and has moved to make the interior feel as special as a premium-priced product deserves.

This is a wise move but there's still something about the Fortwo that smacks of a missed opportunity; a hugely ambitious dream of future sustainable transport that's somehow become rather arch, boutique hipster fare. That it'll find a ready market we have no doubt, but that market is limited in size, if not willingness to pay. Smart needs to make the Fortwo very special if it's to succeed. This looks like a promising step in the right direction.

Toyota Safety Sense Introduced For Aygo and Yaris

Where Toyotas are concerned, being small is no barrier to benefiting from the latest safety technology. The Aygo city car and Yaris supermini are now available with Toyota Safety Sense, providing a suite of features that can help prevent an accident happening, or reduce the severity of an impact. Toyota Safety Sense is being rolled out across the range following its introduction earlier this year in the new Avensis and Auris. Aygo and Yaris customers can now specify the package as an option on their new car, adding to the models' already impressive active and passive safety features.

Yaris Hybrid: Double The Choice With New Active And Sport

Owning a new Toyota Hybrid becomes easier than ever before with two new models joining the Yaris Hybrid line-up. The addition of Active and Sport versions means there's now a hybrid in all four grades in Toyota's top-selling supermini range. The new Yaris Hybrid Active is launched with an on-the-road price tag of £14,995, including a special £300 introductory customer saving, the Active becomes the new entry point to Toyota's clean, efficient and super-smooth hybrid technology. The five-door hatch comes equipped with dual-zone climate control, trip computer, power front windows and a split-folding rear seats. This quiet and refined Toyota hybrid produces 75g/km CO2 emissions and has official combined cycle fuel economy of 85.6mpg. Low emissions mean no annual road tax (VED) and, for London drivers, exemption from the congestion charge. Priced at £16,695 the even more comprehensively-equipped Sport cuts a sharper dash with rear privacy glass, 16-inch alloy wheels, rear spoiler and a rear pillar treatment that creates a floating roof effect. Using the larger alloy wheel brings a modest change in the benchmark figures to 82g/km and 78.5mpg but Yaris Hybrid Sport retains the benefit of zero road tax.

Suzuki Summer Finance Offers

Suzuki have launched their summer offers across the range, including the new Celerio and Vitara models, and the ever-popular Swift and S-Cross. A PCP (Personal Contract Purchase) agreement is ideal for customers who want to purchase a new Suzuki at a low monthly cost. The recently introduced Celerio SZ2 is priced at £6,999 and is available for £79 per month over 42 months, with a deposit of £1,816 and optional final payment of £2,685. Celerio SZ2 is well equipped with a DAB digital radio, CD tuner, Tyre Pressure Monitoring System (TPMS) and daytime running lights all included as standard specification. Swift SZ3 is available on PCP with 0% APR and £0 deposit, at a cost of £172 per month over 42 months with a final payment of £3,375 for a three door model, or £182 per month with a £3,438 final payment for a five door model. In addition, all Swift customers purchasing an SZ3 specification car will receive a free satellite navigation upgrade until the end of September. This is in addition to air conditioning, 16-inch alloy wheels, front fog lamps and Bluetooth connectivity which are all included as standard.

BADMINTON

Penty and Pugh leave

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

INTERNATIONAL player signings from the Far East and Europe will add to the National Badminton League's (NBL) global appeal after team squads were revealed ahead of the 2015/16 season.

Following season one of the UK's first ever professional badminton league, provisional squads from all six teams were announced with new players signed from Malaysia, Denmark, Holland, Poland and Sweden.

The 2015/16 season, starting in November, sees the line-up of Birmingham Lions, Loughborough Sport, MK Badminton, University of Nottingham Badminton, Surrey Smashers and reigning champions, Team Derby, compete in monthly match-nights broadcast live on Sky Sports.

Teams can continue to build their squads ahead of the new season and further new additions are likely. However, teams have been quick to strengthen their existing line-ups, including the top domestic talent, over the summer.

Top English pair Gabby and Chris Adcock are both confirmed to remain at the teams they represented in the inaugural season of the NBL, Surrey Smashers and University of Nottingham Badminton.

Moving on: Jess Pugh has moved from MK Badminton to University of Nottingham Badminton

Pre-season has seen some significant player moves and new signings – all of which are ready to bring a new look to the NBL.

Team Derby, retaining England international and captain Rajiv Ouseph, recruited the NBL's first international from the Far East with the capture of Malaysia's Lyddia Cheah Yi Yu, the former South East Asian Games bronze medallist.

MK Badminton have added European bronze medallist Anders Kristiansen from Denmark.

Summer transfers have also seen in-demand British badminton talent switch between teams.

The notable movers from MK include Jess Pugh to University of Nottingham Badminton and Toby Penty to Birmingham Lions, where he has been appointed captain.

The 2015/16 season of the NBL gets under way on November 2 and will run through to April.

One fixture each month will be broadcast live on Sky Sports with all other match-night fixtures being streamed live online to a worldwide audience.

MK DONS

Cast choice for August Player of the Month

THE Championship has arrived and Dons got off to the perfect start with a 4-1 success at Rotherham United on Saturday.

There are lots of players who will contribute to the Dons effort this season and you can have the chance to vote on who you think has performed the best with our player of the month competition.

We're running the competition side by side with all of the games which are taking place, giving you more time to vote for your favourite.

All your votes will be pooled together and one fan will be chosen at random to present the player of the month with a bottle of champagne before one of Dons' home games.

Carl Baker won the player of the year last season for Dons, causing a bit of a surprise as many expected Dele Alli to win the gong.

But Baker had a sensational season as he helped Dons go unbeaten in their last 10 games of the season.

The deadline for your votes will be on Monday, September 7.

These are the games Dons face throughout the month of August which you can vote on:

Saturday, August 8 - Rotherham United (a)
Tuesday, August 11 - Leyton Orient (h) (Capital One Cup first round)
Saturday, August 15 - Preston North End (h)
Tuesday, August 18 - Bolton Wanderers (h)
Saturday, August 22 - Reading (a)
Tuesday, August 25 - Capital One Cup second round
Saturday, August 29 - Birmingham City (h)

Go online to www.onemk.co.uk to vote.

Carl Baker won plenty of awards last season

Great Brickhill title hopes take a hit with loss

GREAT Brickhill's Cherwell Cricket League title hopes were dented at the weekend as they were defeated by Long Marston.

George Humphries had a great spell of 8-32 to get the mid-table side out for 117 but Great Brickhill could only respond with a score of 91 to lose by 26 runs.

Wolverton Town lost by 27 runs to Banbury Seconds.

Stony Stratford continued their battle against relegation with a 42-run success over Old Northamptonians.

Vicram Sohal notched up nine fours as he scored 69 on Stony's way to a first innings score of 160.

Kamran Anwar was heroic with the ball though as he secured a six-wicket haul to get Stony's opponents out for 118.

In the Four Counties League Milton Keynes beat Milton Keynes City by 24 runs, with David Garner picking up a colossal 124 runs on MK's way to 236-5.

Opener Yasir Hashmi scored 67 in reply but it wasn't enough as City were bowled out for 212.

North Crawley also picked up yet another victory as they beat Eaton Bray by 29 runs, with Glenn Young scoring 75 in the first innings as North Crawley were bowled out for 170. Colin Bonnett's four wickets helped dismiss Eaton Bray for 141.

New City (Milton Keynes) beat New Bradwell by just two wickets as they chased down a target of 135, with Manjit Singh 36 not out.

SPORTSSHORTS

ROWING

THIS weekend rowers from across the country enjoyed exceptional competition, and great weather, at Peterborough Summer Regatta including a large squad of MK rowers who came home with four gold medals.

The men's eight took the first success in their very first race in a brand new boat, funded in part by the Hockey Foundation Fund and the MKRC 24 hour Rowathon sponsored by Iris Guard and supported by Forever Fitter and Arnold Clarke.

The men marked the occasion in style, powering through to the finish with a convincing win.

The second win of the weekend was claimed by the Women's Masters 4+ of Heidi Towse, Louise Rivett, Paula Heywood, Karen Wilson, and their cox Lucy Millett. After a strong start a battle ensued along the rest of the 1km course with the opposition from York but the MK ladies moved as one, pushing to keep their lead and finished with a burst to show their dominance over the competition.

On Sunday the afternoon brought even more excitement with an extremely confident win from Jenny Searle and Helen Marshall in the Women's Masters pairs category, thrashing the competition and recording a time of 1:51 over the 500m course.

From here the medal charge continued with the Women's Masters B/C 4+ crew of Heidi Towse, Louisa Briar, Paula Heywood, Karen Wilson, and cox Lucy Millett battling the crew from Evesham to finish just 0.4 seconds ahead and claim victory.

"It was a brilliant weekend with four wins and some very close calls, but what stands out is the club's success across various categories, from Novice to Masters," said club rower Lucy Millett.

"With the last few regattas set in the calendar I'm excited to see what we can do in the second half of the summer season!"

ICE HOCKEY

TICKETS for MK Lightning's first three home games against Peterborough Phantoms, Basingstoke Bison and Bracknell Bees are now available.

You can buy tickets at the MK Arena from 10am until 9pm seven days a week, phone 01908 540020 or go to www.planet-ice.co.uk.

Tickets for an adult cost £13.50 on the night and £1 less in advance, for children it's £7 and £6.50 in advance, a family ticket is £33 and £30 in advance and concessions are £9.50 on the night, otherwise it is £8.50.

Season tickets are still on sale and remain the best way to guarantee your favourite seat or viewing spot for the lowest possible price.

ATHLETICS

A TEAM of 14 ladies from Marshall Milton Keynes Athletics Club made the long journey north to Glasgow for the third and final UK Women's Division Two League match

The vertical jumps afforded the team very valuable points. Rachel Gibbens (3.60m) and Kewe King (2.60m) produced a pole vault double and then Gibbens equalled her high jump PB of 1.70m for another win with King jumping 1.45m for third place in the B event.

On the track Lara Bromilow won the 3,000m (10.07.48) with Nadine Lewycky second in the B race (11.11.04).

Later in the 1,500m, Elle Roche ran to third in the A-string (4.50.80) with Bromilow second in the B (4.53.88).

The team were not as strong as usual in the throwing events but Emma Beales and Laeken Impey contested three events events each and Impey finished second in the hammer (45.34m.)

Other events included Mark Ryall returning from injury with two good results, firstly running 8.57.80 for the 3,000m on the track at Woodford and then placing fourth in the Bearbrook (Aylesbury) 10km in 34.50, the second and fifth best time respectively for a MK runner this year.

At the Milton Keynes Open Meeting there was a good turnout for the open track and field meeting at Stantonbury, essentially for younger athletes.

Harrison Reed made a fine recovery from injury winning both the U13 boys 100m (13.0) and 200m (27.1).

Moyin Oduyemi finished second in the U13 girls 100m with a time of 13.6 which was equal seventh in the club all time age rankings. Pemiwa Aderoju won the U13 boys 75m hurdles.

In the hammer event the Presswell sisters both threw over 50m.

A dramatic late win for MK Dons in Cup match

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

MK DONS picked up an incredible 2-1 win over Leyton Orient in the Capital One Cup last night.

Dons went 1-0 down thanks to a Dean Lewington own goal in the first half, but an 89th minute Mathieu Baudry own goal was followed by Carl Baker finding the back of the net to cap an amazing turnaround.

It was also announced before the game that Ben Reeves has signed a contract extension until 2017.

The win comes after Dons enjoyed a great start to life in the Championship after beating Rotherham United 4-1 in the club's first match on Saturday.

Dons boss Karl Robinson was 'humbled' by his side's performance after Rob Hall, a Danny Collins own goal, Dean Bowditch and Baker gave them the perfect start to the season as they went top of the Championship.

Back in action: MK Dons played their first game at stadiummk last night since winning promotion in May. They beat Leyton Orient 2-1 in the Capital One Cup

* Buy Now Pay Later: The first repayments start after a set period of time, called the deferral or 'buy now pay later' period, which is after 12 months. If the loan is fully repaid during that time, there is no interest to pay, but a settlement fee (Typically £29.00), will be applied which is shown in the loan agreement. Interest is applied at a fixed rate of 29.9% per annum (29.9%APR) from the start of the loan agreement if the loan is not settled before the end of the deferral or 'buy now pay later' period and the customer starts making regular monthly repayments for 48 months from the end of the deferral or 'buy now pay later' period. Selected models only. Double Cashback available from 20th August - 6th September 2015. Ask in store for details
